Subject: RE: Wood Heating Certification Test Meeting - Tentative date

Unfortunately, the 10/31 date does not work for the Northeast folks, meetings already on the books for key participants. The 20th is the only doable date for us.

John, Bob and Lisa,

I have a tentative date of Thursday, October 31 for the initial meeting, here in RTP.

Does this date work for you folks?

Next available date is Wednesday, November 20th.
